A diagram of a three-part cabinet assembly. The assembly consists of a top section and two lower sections. The top section is a rectangular box with a circular handle on its front face, labeled with the number 1. The two lower sections are rectangular panels, labeled with the numbers 2 and 4. These panels are shown being lifted into place, as indicated by two upward-pointing arrows at the bottom of the diagram. The central gap between the two lower panels is labeled with the number 5.
